

Benefits you can't miss from AEO Suite

Create pre-alerts On Risk

- Create pre-alerts for noncompliant classification or incomplete declaration information
- Create alerts for trading parties that are subject to denied party lists, including sanctions and embargoes
- Search trade compliance information, including import/ export tariff duty, DPS list, standard declarable elements, preferential programs and customs documentation requirements

Manage, Track and Record for Compliance

- Manage trading party information, product master data, shipment information, and declaration information
- Generate and retain customs documentation for declarations
- Audit data changes and trace historical data
- Track international transportation milestones, fees, and expenses
- File the data and documentations for declaration
- Quickly find and extract import/export data and documentations
- Run performance reports and scorecards on overall trading performance

Leverage Enhanced Connectivity

- Realize the connectivity with China Customs single Window
- Interface with ERP, forwarder, and broker to receive and send master data and shipment information