THOMSON REUTERS

ONESOURCE™

Key check points for AEO Certification

Thomson Reuters ONESOURCE Global Trade for China AEO allows companies to comply with AEO requirements with enhanced efficiency

Customs Standard

Establish and effectively implement the import and export document review or error correction system.

Our Solution

- Pre- alert for noncompliance classification and incomplete declaration information
- Daily Automated Customs Declaration Data and Standard Declarable Elements Validation
- Invoice Data Validation
- Internal Approval Management

Customs Standard

Establish a data management system for information systems and store data for more than 3 years.

Our Solution

- Generate and retain customs documentation
- File the data and documentations for declaration

Customs Standard

Establish a management system to assess and inspect the supply chain safety of business partners and implement it effectively.

Our Solution

- Party info Management
- Denied Party Screening

Customs Standard

Establish an information system that is true, accurate, complete, and effectively controls the production and operation of enterprises, import and export activities, with recordable, traceable. Functions such as inquiry, analysis, and early warning can be operated effectively.

Our Solution

- Customs Declaration Data Validation
- Global Classification Lookups
- Daily Automated Compliance Data Validation
- Pre- alert for noncompliance classification and incomplete declaration information
- Audit data changes and trace historical data
- Run performance reports and scorecards on overall trading performance

Customs Standard

More than the standard

Our Solution

- Realize the connectivity with Chinese Customs single Window
- Interface with ERP, forwarder, and broker to receive and send master data and shipment information
- Track international transportation milestones, fees, and expenses

THOMSON REUTERS®